Evaluation Scheme V

Comments of exhibitors and visitors.

- This was our first time as exhibitor so we do not have a lot of reference regarding the quality of the exhibition
 - Exhibition Cahe is also very good
 - According to our opinion there is no good reason for a VIV in China. Bangkok is a lot easier for our International clients and for the local market the CAHE-Show seems to be much more interesting.
 - The local Chinese yearly show still the best show for China market.
 - CAHE is the best show for the Chinese market with many more visitors and effective leads.
 - There are limited international visitors at VIV China and many are visitors who specially look for cheap made-in-China products
 - At this time, we prefer the CAHE show every May in China.
 - Cahe is potential the best show.
 - better third day than last time, more international customers than last time in general less visitors than last time, CAHE leaves a better more local impression.
- Wifi missing on exhibition.
- CAHE show.
 - Once again the VIV Beijing show did NOT fill the expectations. Both number of Chinese and international visitors were too limited. Although exhibitor boots are at high standards (compared to some years ago).
